Who is Southwest Akita Tactical Rescue (SWAT)

South West Akita Tactical Rescue is a volunteer-based 501 (c)3 animal welfare organization dedicated to rescuing and rehoming Akitas through rescue, rehabilitation, training, humane education and community outreach. South West Akita Tactical Rescue (SWAT) is an all volunteer 501(c)3 non-profit organization dedicated to giving a second chance to Akitas in the South West who have been abandoned, turned into animal shelters, or are no longer wanted by their families.

We are dedicated to saving the Akita, a breed of dog endowed with loyalty, devotion, intelligence and honor. We look for permanent loving homes for our dogs. We will work with families to help keep their Akita in their home, providing resources and one on one support. We are committed to helping as many dogs as we financially can. We will work to educate potential owners and the public about the Akita breed with a goal of reducing the number of abandoned, abused, neglected, or unwanted Akitas.

Your generosity helps SWAT Rescue to continue to do the important, loving work we do. We hope you will keep SWAT Rescue in mind for future contributions.

On behalf of the beautiful doggies of our magnificent breed, thank you from the bottom of our hearts.
